

SCHEDULE

8th Amendment

21/12/1993

In the entry for;

SZ 6199 NE

GOSPORT

NORTH STREET

7/94

Numbers 84-92

II

The entry shall be amended to read;

SZ 6199 NE

GOSPORT

NORTH STREET

7/94

Numbers 84-92

20.1.77

II

Flats and community hall, formerly an inn. Front block C18 restored in late C20, rear wing an C18 ballroom restored late C20. Front is rendered brickwork with applied ashlar lines, slate hung left side and brick right side and rear. Hipped plain tiled roof with stone chimneystacks. Rear wing (formerly a ballroom) brown brick with red brick dressings and tiled roof. Front block mainly of 3 storeys 5 windows but right hand section over carriage entrance of 2 storeys 2 windows. Nine pane sashes except for 1st floor of principal part, which has 12 pane sashes in moulded architraves. Parapet ramped up in centre and moulded band between 1st and 2nd floors. Ground floor has late C19 bow front decorated with 2 colour green faience tiles having pilasters with Corinthian capitals. To south is a semi-circular ended C18 wing, in existence by 1750, which has 2 cambered 18 pane sashes to the end and 4 cambered 18 pane sashes to one side with late C20 cambered arches below. In the C18 this building was known as the Red Lion Inn and was renamed the Crown Hotel in 1910. The Ballroom interior of c1910 was destroyed by fire in the mid 1980s.

Signed by authority of the

Dated; 21 December 1993

