Qualifications

- Candidates must satisfy criteria on the day they are nominated and on polling day:
  - be at least 18 years old
  - either be a British citizen, a citizen of the Republic of Ireland or a qualifying Commonwealth citizen
- There is no requirement to be a registered elector in the UK.

The Electoral Commission

Disqualifications Certain people are disqualified from becoming an MP, such as:

- civil servants
- members of police forces
- members of the armed forces
- government-nominated directors of commercial companies
- judges
- members of a foreign legislature (outside the Commonwealth)
- peers who sit and vote in the House of Lords

Disqualifications Further disqualifications include:

- those who are subject to a bankruptcy restrictions order or debt relief restrictions order (but not those who are simply bankrupt) in England, Wales or Northern Ireland; or those whose estate has been sequestrated in Scotland and have not been discharged

For elections taking place on or after 2 May 2024:

- those who are disqualified on the grounds that they are found guilty of an illegal or corrupt practice such as undue influence
- those who are subject to a disqualification order under section 30 of the Elections Act 2022

The nomination papers

- Three nomination papers must be submitted by all candidates by 4:00pm on Friday 07 June 2024, together with the deposit:
  - the nomination form
  - the home address form
  - the consent to nomination
- Party candidates will also need to submit by that time:
  - a certificate authorising the use of a party name/registered description on the ballot paper
  - a written request to use one of the party's emblems on the ballot paper

The deposit

- Each candidate must deposit £500 with the (A)RO so that the nomination is valid.
- Can be made using legal tender (cash) or a UK banker's draft
- The (A)RO will also accept a deposit made by building society cheque, a debit or credit card or an electronic funds transfer, and details are included in the nominations pack.
- The deposit is returned if a candidate polls at least 5% of the valid votes cast across the constituency

Completing nomination papers

- Take care when completing your nomination papers as mistakes may invalidate your nomination!
- Complete your nomination papers early and arrange for us to provide an informal check.
- The nomination form, consent to nomination form and home address form must be delivered by hand and cannot be submitted by post, fax or other electronic means.
- The nomination and home address form may only be delivered by:
  - you
  - your proposer or seconder, or
  - by your election agent (if the (Acting) Returning Officer has previously received notification of their appointment).

The Electoral Commission

Nomination form

- Include your full name
- Optional: complete commonly used name box(es) if commonly known by a name other than full name and wish to use it instead
  - Commonly used names are the only names shown on official notices and ballot papers
  - Candidates may use commonly used names to use one of more of their names given on the nomination paper in a different manner
  - For example, if Andrew John Smith-Jones is more commonly known as John Smith-Jones, they could ask for this name to be used

Nomination form

- Description field – 3 options:
  - leave blank
  - Independent
  - party candidates can use party name or description authorised by a certificate issued by or on behalf of the Nominating Officer.

Nomination form

- Subscribers: 10 subscribers from the constituency are required.
- Must sign and should print their names. Check details of subscribers against electoral register that is in force on the last day for publication of notice of election.
- If they are not on that register, they can't subscribe your nomination.
- Only ask subscribers to sign after completing the name and description fields on the form
- Data protection requirements

Home address form

- Must state home address in full
- Must state if you do not want your address to be made public and to appear on the ballot paper. If so:
  - give the constituency or the relevant area in which your home address is situated or,
  - if you live outside the UK, the name of the country in which you reside.

Consent to nomination form

All candidates must consent to their nomination.

On the consent to nomination form you will be asked to state:

- that you are qualified and not disqualified from standing
- your date of birth
- the name, address and signature of witness
- that you are not a candidate in another constituency

Certificate of authorisation

- Party candidates must have written permission to use the party name/description from the Nominating Officer (or a person appointed to act on their behalf).
- The certificate may:
  - allow the use of the party name or a description
  - allow the candidate to choose whether to use the party name or any of the descriptions registered with the Electoral Commission
- Must be submitted with the other nomination papers by 4pm on Friday, 07 June 2024

Emblem request form

- Party candidates can ask for an emblem to be printed on the ballot paper
- Emblem request form must be submitted by 4pm on Friday, 07 June 2024
- Party candidates should supply an electronic version of the emblem to the Acting Returning Officer if required.

Joint candidates

- Nominated by more than one party
- May use registered joint descriptions
  - must be supported by certificate of authorisation from each party
- May use one emblem of one of the parties but there are no joint emblems

Election agent

- Responsible for the proper management of your election campaign; particularly its financial management.
- Notification of appointment must reach the ARO by 4pm on Friday 07 June 2024. Form is included in nomination pack.
- You will become your own agent by default if none is appointed.

Other agents

- Other agents can be appointed to attend postal vote openings, polling stations and the count on your behalf:
  - You must give notice in writing of any people appointed as polling and counting agents by 5.00pm on Thursday 27 June 2024. We will provide forms.
  - The appointment of postal voting agents attending a particular opening session must be made before the start of each session. We will give 48 hours' notice and the dates, times and locations will be included in the post nomination briefing pack.

Free candidate mailing

- All candidates who are validly nominated are entitled to send one election communication, free of charge, to electors across the constituency.
- It must include matters relating to the election only.
- You can choose to send either:
  - one unaddressed election communication of up to 60 grams to every postal address, or
  - one election communication of up to 60 grams addressed to each elector
- contact Royal Mail to make arrangements

Access to electoral register / absent voting lists

- Access by candidates – once you officially become a candidate:
  - earliest, on Thursday 30 May 2024 if you, or others, have declared yourself a candidate on or before this date
  - After Monday 03 June 2024 once you or others have declared yourself a candidate or you submit your nomination papers, whichever is earliest
- Make written request to the ERO – forms are available from the Electoral Registration Officer and have been included in your nomination pack.

Access to electoral register / absent voting
lists

- Only use data for permitted purposes
  - to complete the nomination form
  - to help you campaign
  - to check that donations/loans are permissible

Registration

- As a candidate you are uniquely placed to encourage people to register to vote.
- You should encourage people to register as soon as possible.
- The deadline for applying for the election is Tuesday, 18 June 2024.
- Individuals can apply to register online at <https://www.gov.uk/register-to-vote>. It only takes a few minutes.

Registration

- When discussing registering to vote with individuals, you will need to make them aware that they will need:
  - their National Insurance number
  - date of birth and address to register.
- People who do not have / cannot retrieve their National Insurance Number can still register, but they may need to provide further information. If so, they will be contacted by the ERO.

Absent voting

- Highlight that electors can now apply online at www.gov.uk/apply-postal-vote or www.gov.uk/apply-proxy-vote
- When talking to electors about applying to vote by post or proxy, you should make them aware of the relevant deadlines and advise them to apply early
- You will need to make them aware that they will need to provide their National Insurance number, date of birth, signature and address to register.
- People who do not have / cannot retrieve their National Insurance Number or cannot provide a signature can still apply, but they may need to provide further information. If so, they will be contacted by the ERO.
- If you are encouraging people to apply for a postal (or proxy) vote, make sure you explain that they will only qualify for one if they are (or will be) registered in time to vote at the elections.

Absent voting - campaigners

- Campaigners cannot handle postal votes for other electors who are not close relatives or someone for whom they provide regular care
- Campaigners may handle postal voting documents if that's a feature of a job they hold (e.g. a postal worker)
- New limits on the number of postal votes that can be handed in – a maximum of five plus their own for each poll

Absent voting – A campaigner is:

Who is a campaigner?

- a candidate at the election(s)
- an election agent (or sub-agent)
- employed by the candidate (for the purposes of the candidate's activities at the election)
- a member of a registered political party who is carrying out activity to promote a particular outcome at an election
- someone employed by a registered political party in connection with that party's political activities

Voter Identification

- Voters in this election will need to provide a form of accepted photographic ID if they wish to vote in person at a polling station.
- Voters will be able to present out of date photographic ID so long as the photograph is still a good likeness.
- If a voter fails to present a form of accepted photographic ID they will not be issued with a ballot paper.
- This includes those who act as a proxy for another person.

Accepted forms of Voter ID

- Voters should be encouraged to check whether they have one of the forms of accepted photographic ID well in advance of the election
- If a voter does not have an accepted form of photographic ID, they can apply for a Voter Authority Certificate either online <https://www.gov.uk/apply-for-photo-id-voter-authority-certificate> or using a paper application form.
- Electors who are registered anonymously must have an Elector's Document to vote in person
- Any applications must be received by the ERO by 5pm on Wednesday 26 June 2024.

Campaigning dos and don'ts

- Do use imprints on all your campaign material
- Do comply with planning rules relating to advertising hoardings and large banners
- Do make sure outdoor posters are removed 2 weeks after the election
- Do not produce material that looks like a poll card
- Do not pay people to display your adverts (unless they display adverts as part of their normal business)
- Do not handle any postal voting documents you are not entitled to

Code of conduct for campaigners

Campaigners are an essential element of a healthy democracy, but their activities should not bring into question the integrity of the electoral process.

- Electoral registration and absent vote applications:
  - Ensure forms fully conform to the requirements of electoral law
  - Ensure electors are aware they can apply to register or for an absent vote online
  - Include the EROs address for the return of any paper forms
  - Ensure unaltered applications are sent to ERO within two working days
  - Make sure electors understand implications of applying for an absent vote
  - Do not encourage postal ballot pack redirection
  - Do not encourage electors to appoint a campaigner as proxy
- Voter Authority Certificate applications:
  - Should not handle paper based Voter Authority Certificate applications and should encourage electors to send them directly to the ERO

Code of conduct for campaigners

- Postal voting documents:
  - Never touch any of an elector's postal voting documents
  - Never observe electors completing their postal vote
  - Never handle or take any completed ballot paper or postal ballot packs from voters.
- Campaigning outside polling stations:
  - You are allowed to put your messages to voters on polling day, including in public spaces outside polling places
  - Keep access to polling places and the pavements around polling places clear to allow voters to enter.

The Electoral Commission

Polling day

- Polling stations open from 7am to 10pm.
- Elections Office open 6am to 10pm for queries or problems relating to the administration of the election
  - for queries relating to election finance issues, contact the Electoral Commission (contact details shown later)
- Voters in the polling station or in a queue outside the polling station at 10pm can apply for a ballot paper
- Voters in this election will need to present photographic ID in the polling station
- Voters can request to have their ID checked in private

Completed postal votes handed in to polling stations

- Postal votes can be handed into Polling Stations within the voting area
- Anyone returning postal votes by hand must complete a postal vote return form, otherwise the postal votes will be rejected
- Polling station staff may assist anyone wishing to hand in postal votes to complete the relevant form
- An individual may hand in a maximum of 6 electors' postal votes (their own and five others) per poll
- If the individual is a campaigner they may only handle their own postal vote and those that belong to close family members or people for whom they provide care
- Polling station staff will not be able to provide advice about whether someone is a campaigner, but they may reject postal votes if they have reasonable cause to believe an individual is a campaigner
- If postal votes are handed in not in accordance with the rules, then they will be rejected

Completed postal votes handed in to council buildings

- Restrictions on the numbers of returned postal votes and who may hand in postal votes are the same as for polling stations
- An individual may hand in a maximum of 6 electors' postal votes (their own and five others) per poll
- Postal votes for the Gosport Constituency may be returned by hand to Electoral Services staff in the Town Hall during usual office hours
- Staff authorised by the Acting Returning Officer may assist anyone wishing to hand in postal votes to complete the relevant form
- Postal votes dropped off to reception or other council office desks or locations or any posted into council letter boxes without completing the postal vote return form will be rejected and will not be counted

Counting of votes

- The count will be held in:
  - Gosport Leisure Centre, Forest Way, Gosport, Hampshire, PO13 0ZX
- Count centre will open to candidates and agents from 9:50pm
- Candidates, election agents, counting agents and one other person appointed by the candidate are entitled to attend

Spending issues

Candidate spending

- Defined as certain expenses 'used for the purposes of the candidate's election' during the regulated period
- Responsibility of election agent
- Limit on expenses: See next slide
- Must get and keep receipts (over £20)

The spending limit

Regulated period	Fixed amount	Constituency type	Variable amounts (per registered parliamentary elector)
Short campaign	£11,390	Borough/Burgh	8p per registered parliamentary elector

Candidates' spending returns

- Returns due 35 calendar days after result of election
- Returns made public by Acting Returning Officer
- Sample of returns may be reviewed by the Electoral Commission
- Failure to submit an expenses return is a criminal offence enforceable by the police
- No spending will be reimbursed.
