Dear Cllr Raffaelli,

I have just made a sincere endeavour to study the Consultation Draft. When I got to Para 3.5 through 3.7 when some bells started to ring.

Q1) - Has there been a genuine and formal 'Consultation' (In the spirit of the Legislation) between Gosport & Fareham regarding the Newgate Lane development(s)?

Q2) - Why Is Gosport bound by legislation to Consult – not just with the Residents of the Borough but with adjacent Boroughs but:- Fareham is not?

Q3) – If Borough to Borough dialogue is not actually required, why is Gosport wasting time and money giving such a topic consideration?

Some may say there is a simple answer to the Strategic Boundary situation, if so, can it please be revealed?

Kind regards, David Barton.
